Why you should attend

This presentation will acquaint Internet users with the on-line legal research databases available through the Arizona State Library, Archives and Public Records (ASLAPR). The presentation will feature databases that aid legal research as well as the ASLAPR's Arizona Memory project, a digital repository for this state's government documents. In particular, the speaker will demonstrate how to search for and browse historical Attorney General Opinions.

Presenter

Michele Reilly: Michele has been with the Arizona Library, Archives and Public Records for 2 ½ years. In that time she's added 20 new published digital collections, developed search tutorials, and installed a Google search gadget for the Memory Project. Michele is familiar with the technical and metadata standards and best practices used in organizing and presenting digital information.

Cost: No fee for Attorney General's Office employees
$5 for other State Government employees per session (to cover the cost of materials)
